1. [] Comment. Units of the 34th Arty Div (US) possibly conducted final exercises at the Altengrabow training grounds prior to departing for their posts. The 122-mm field howitzers mentioned must, however, have been cannons.

25X1

2. [] Comment. There is reason to believe that the trains carried units of the 6th Arty Div which moved to the area of Dessau for the fall maneuvers of the Sixth Gds Army.

[] A column of the 18th How Arty Bn was also observed marching through Wiesenburg on 9 October. [] The column observed on the Luedeburger North Doornitz road on 8 October belongs to the 34th Arty Div (US).

3. [] Comment. [] Two trains went from Altengrabow to Rathenow on 9 October. They are possibly those mentioned in the present report, [] so, the guns would have had other calibers, as the brigades of the 6th Arty Div do not have that number of 76.2-mm guns.
